Since its founding in 1916, St. Joseph's College has sought to nurture an atmosphere in which students and faculty can explore the many facets of human knowledge. Today, our college provides an atmosphere for open communication, individual attention and innovative teaching to inspire in each student a spirit of inquiry and the joy of learning as an ongoing part of our lives.

Our experience here at St. Joseph's has molded each of our lives. This "stage" of ours has prepared us for the ultimate dramatic performance . . . life itself.

For the past few years, St. Joseph's has been the stage on which we have performed. Our entrances have been as varied as there are students, some beginning as Freshmen, others transferring over from other colleges. For some, college followed closely on the heels of high school, while others have had some time elapse between the two. In our very differences, we have unity, however, as we all seek knowledge.

The roles we play on our stage of life will always be diversified, but the uniqueness of our time spent at St. Joseph's lies in our striving for the climax of this particular performance, Commencement. We responded to the Casting Call of Orientation as eager new students at SJC. It was here we began to get acquainted with the surroundings and gain the confidence we needed as unsure understudies. As we gazed at the rows of classrooms and variety of courses, we soon became determined to acquire the lead role on our own personal center stage. There were joyous ovations ahead, as well as resounding flops, and we grew as we learned from both.

Our fellow players enlivened the stage, bringing us glimpses of the comedy, drama, tragedy and romance to come in our lives ahead. We shared with them our experiences both in and out of classes as we lived through the many scenes enacted on our stage.

The Producers of our performance, the Administration, as well as the Directors, the Faculty, were relentless in their determination to improve the production. They have guided us through many performances and have opened many new vistas for us in our own self-awareness. Our deep appreciation is combined with our determination to prove their efforts worthwhile.

As Seniors, we could call our play "A Star is Born", yet it was certainly not an overnight wonder. Rehearsals consisted of many long days and nights of work and study, combined with a variety of social, community, and sports events, as well as parties of the seasons. After all, the skilled playwright knows how to combine varying experiences with a touch of mystery to heighten the effect. The many Clubs at SJC, as well as the solid support of the Underclassmen, have served as a Supporting Cast to us as we took the center stage. In retrospect, the scenes seemed to fly by with astounding speed as we stand in the wings awaiting the final scene, Commencement.

Our Grand Finale may be a ceremony in caps and gowns, but it is just the beginning of a new and richer production. Our time "on the boards" at St. Joseph's has prepared us to exit in the grand manner, confident that our experiences gained here have merited thunderous applause.

This isn't the Boardy Barn, Karent!

A display of pure womanhood!

They finally got their act together!

Nervous, Kelly?

... 'Cause St. Joe's is a beer drinkin' school.

She can sing and dance!

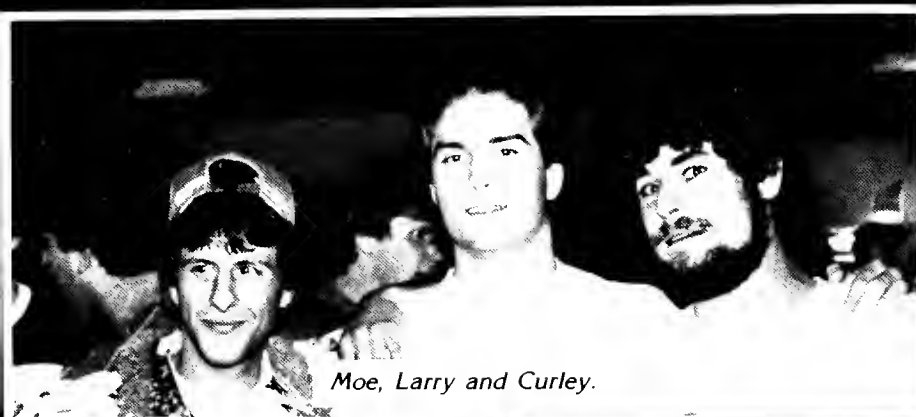

Who dealt the cards?

What's for dinner?

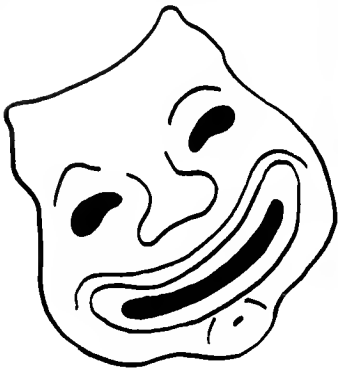

The cat's meows.

Moe, Larry and Curley.

Say Goodnight, Nancy!

CAST

CHARACTERS

And you didn't believe me when I said it was the 4th.

Can you decide who is the Ivory Girl?

I knew my ballet lessons would pay off.

Nine out of ten college students prefer Inglenook.

Here's Carol . . .

Are you sure this will make me taller?

Is that what you really think?

We work hard for our money.

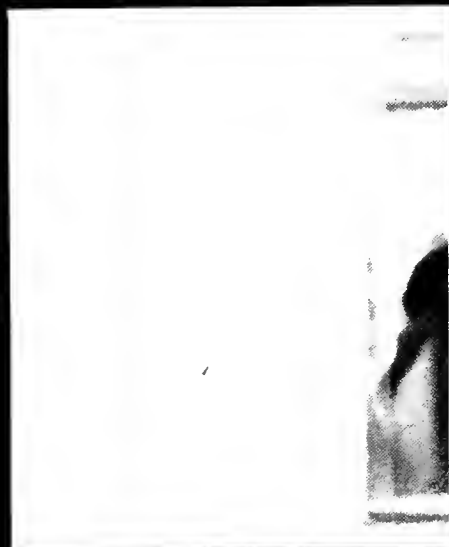

Singing again Joanmarie?

Sitting pretty.

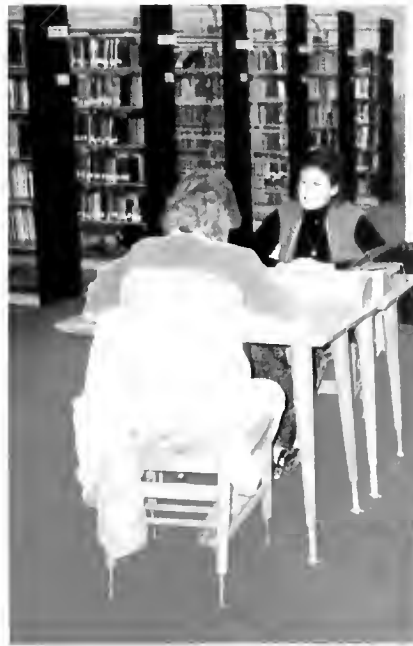

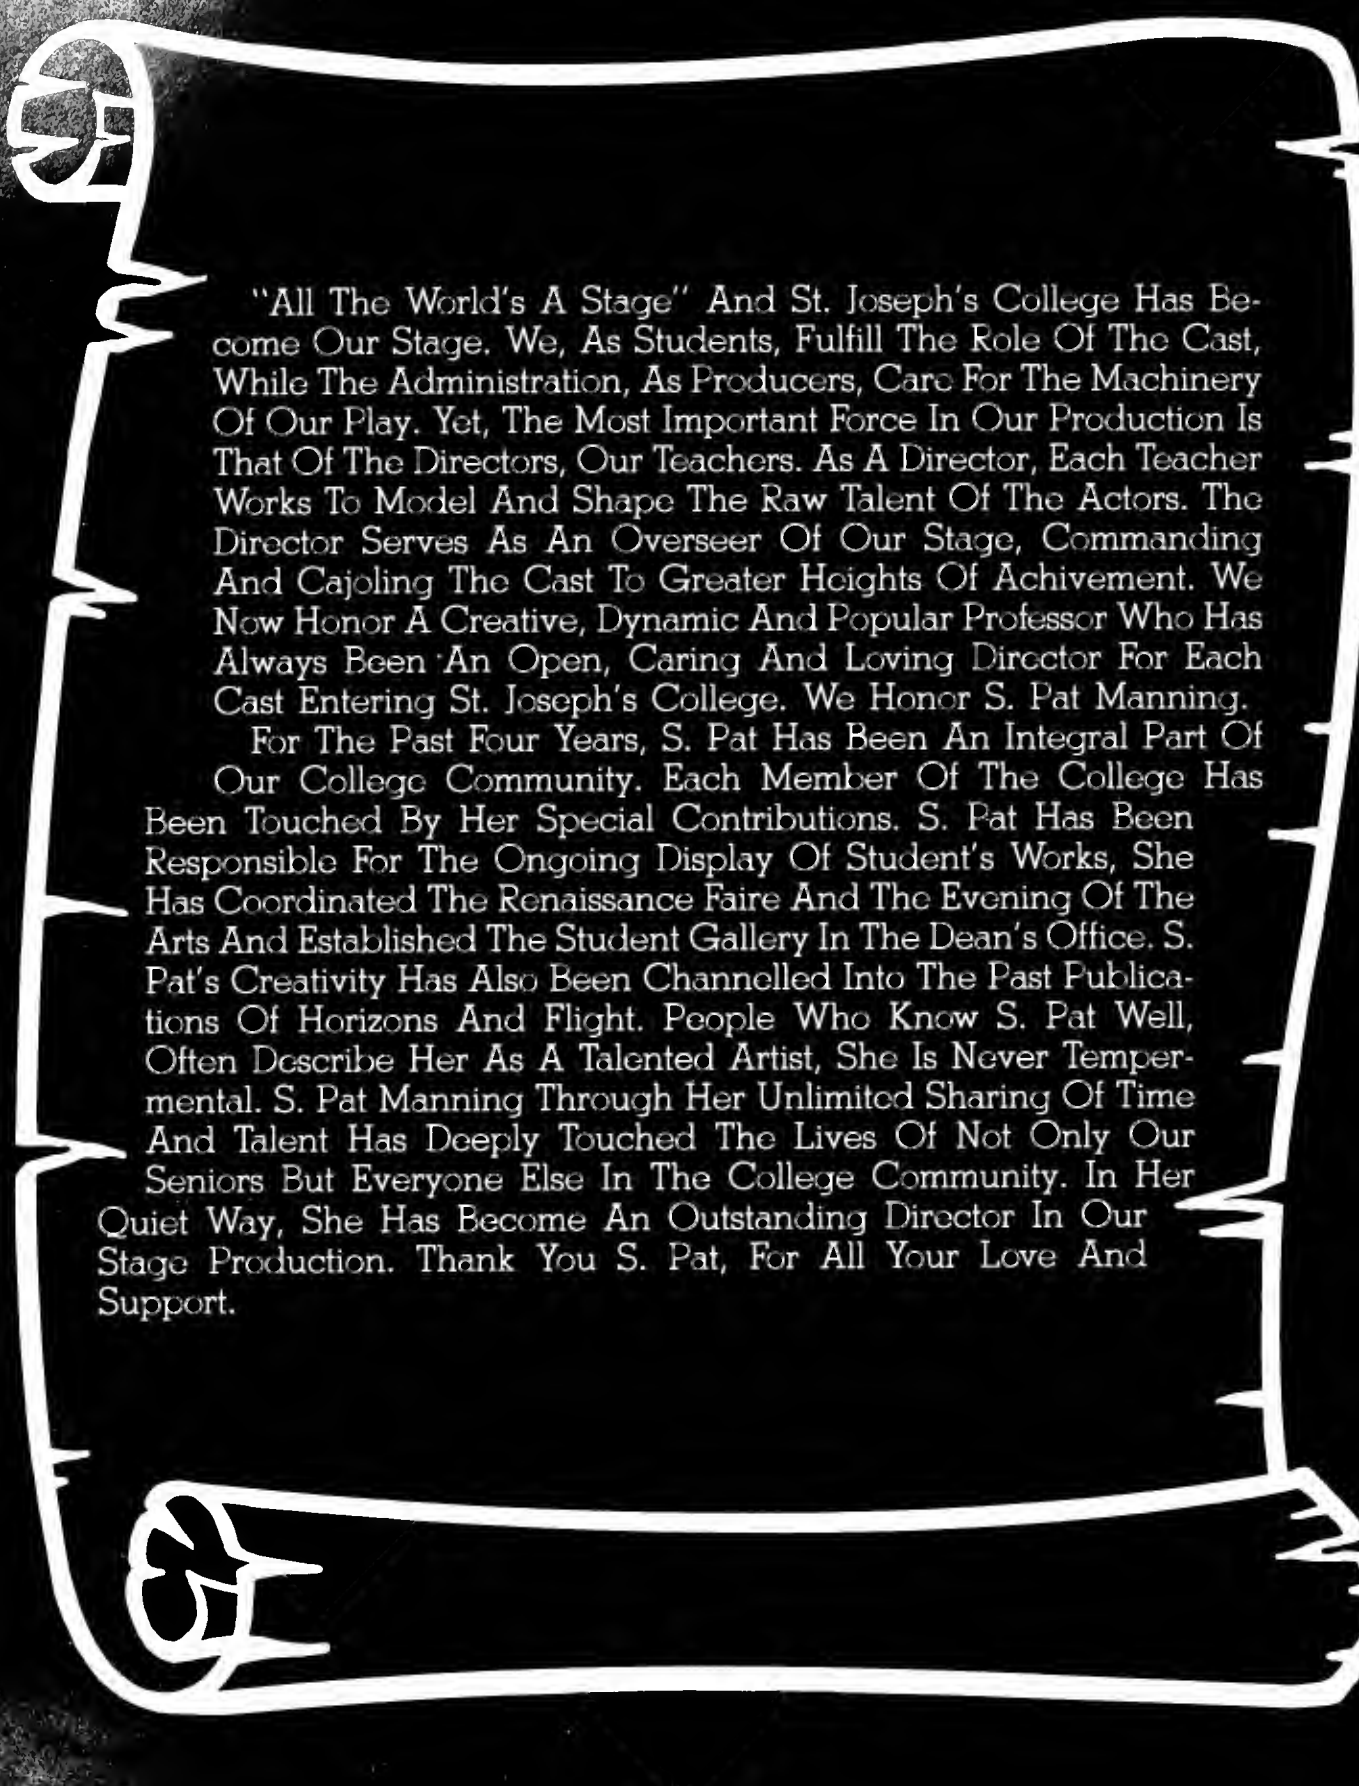

Hi Mom!

This one speaks for itself.

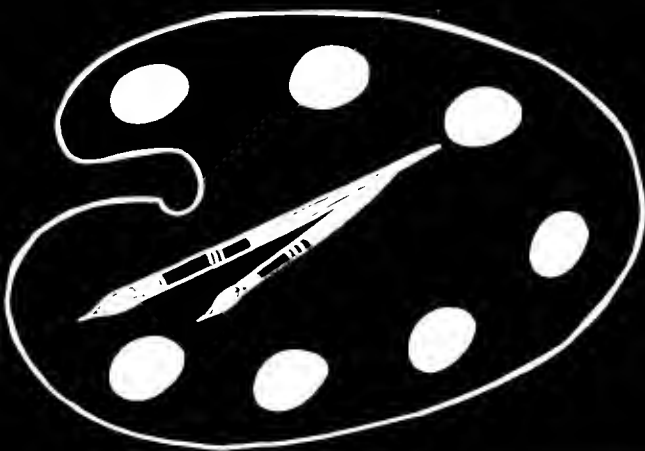

"All The World's A Stage" And St. Joseph's College Has Become Our Stage. We, As Students, Fulfill The Role Of The Cast, While The Administration, As Producers, Care For The Machinery Of Our Play. Yet, The Most Important Force In Our Production Is That Of The Directors, Our Teachers. As A Director, Each Teacher Works To Model And Shape The Raw Talent Of The Actors. The Director Serves As An Overseer Of Our Stage, Commanding And Cajoling The Cast To Greater Heights Of Achievement. We Now Honor A Creative, Dynamic And Popular Professor Who Has Always Been An Open, Caring And Loving Director For Each Cast Entering St. Joseph's College. We Honor S. Pat Manning.

For The Past Four Years, S. Pat Has Been An Integral Part Of Our College Community. Each Member Of The College Has Been Touched By Her Special Contributions. S. Pat Has Been Responsible For The Ongoing Display Of Student's Works, She Has Coordinated The Renaissance Faire And The Evening Of The Arts And Established The Student Gallery In The Dean's Office. S. Pat's Creativity Has Also Been Channelled Into The Past Publications Of Horizons And Flight. People Who Know S. Pat Well, Often Describe Her As A Talented Artist, She Is Never Temperamental. S. Pat Manning Through Her Unlimited Sharing Of Time And Talent Has Deeply Touched The Lives Of Not Only Our Seniors But Everyone Else In The College Community. In Her Quiet Way, She Has Become An Outstanding Director In Our Stage Production. Thank You S. Pat, For All Your Love And Support.

ADMINISTRATION

The Vice President and Dean of Saint Joseph's College is our own Sr. Virginia Therese Callahan. The results of her work can be seen in just about every aspect of the College—the courses chosen, committee work, faculty and administration selection, ceremonies, and student relations.

Sr. Virginia makes her presence known and her time available from the beginning of a student's life here at St. Joe's through her much appreciated help at registration and at orientation. Her efforts on behalf of the students and her dedication to the College itself serves as a role model for all.

Walt Disney World College Program—Students from St. Joseph's College, Bethune-Cookman College, Alcorn State University, Missouri Western State College, University of New Orleans, and the University of Southern Mississippi are among 250 students participating in the Walt Disney World College Program this year. The students represent 140 colleges and universities in the United States and four foreign countries. During their stay at Walt Disney World, college program participants get on-the-job training and classroom experience. Students pictured (left to right, top row) are Sandra Lindner of Missouri Western State College, Tammy Ryall of the University of New Orleans, and Mitzi Maniscalco of the University of Southern Mississippi, and (left to right, bottom row) Terri Wade of St. Joseph's College, Eric Tate of Bethune-Cookman College, and Patricia Jackson of Alcorn State University. A group of people who are interested and involved in educating children. As a club, we try to intergrate knowledge about children's growth and development into meaningful school programs. We try to enrich our educational experiences of working with children by sharing ideas with others; listening to professional speakers in the field; viewing films; and being involved in other special events geared towards children and education.

ENGLISH CLUB

Although not recognized as such, the English Club is one of the most active clubs of St. Joseph's College. With the help of their moderator, Brother Benilde Montgomery, the club members have presented us with poetry readings, plays, lectures, and films.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Psychology Club tries to broaden its members' knowledge and experience of psychology by bringing in guest speakers, films, and by attending special programs or group sessions. While the membership is not large, the club has a good time.

LITERARY MAGAZINE

Literary Magazine editors: Cheryl Reich, Sue Peters

JOTTER

THE JOTTER functions as the weekly newspaper for the Patchogue Campus of St. Joseph's College. In 1984 the Jotter switched to a typesetting service to give the layout and presentation a more professional format. The JOTTER would like to thank both our contributors and our critics, without whom the Jotter would not continue to exist and improve.

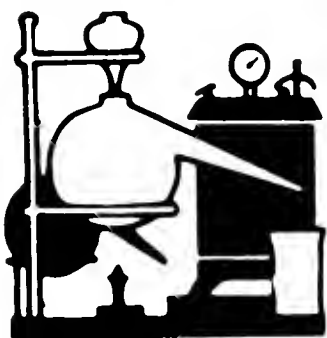

Jotter Editors: Joanmarie Koster, Lori Eagle, Janece Hausner, and Laurie Volkmann (absent)

BASKETBALL TEAM

THE TEAMS

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

The Golden Eagles will be completing their fourth season of intercollegiate basketball competition. The basketball program has progressed slowly, but each year has seen a steady improvement. In 1983-84, its first record was 2 and 15. 84-85, it improved to 9 and 15. The 85-86 season brought SJC to the 500 level with a record of 11 and 15. The Tournament provides the opportunity for the first winning season in the brief history of the school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Carolyn Acciarito, leave all my creative lesson plans to future CS majors, for a small fee. To Anne Powers I leave a pair of well oiled roller skates. To Barbara Hanlon I leave an Instant Field work Placement Computer. To S. Joanne Forker I leave . . . grammar and comic sarcasm. To Dr. Thomas Travis, I leave a smile knowing GS students are in good hands.

I, Pat Baessler, leave my seat outside S. Karen's office to the next Sr. looking for a friendly shoulder to cry on. I leave all the CS majors in thesis to S. Agnes and her "Write one for the Gipper" speech. I leave all non-math types to Mr. Pacillo with his PATIENCE and continual good humor. I leave to other CS majors wonderful teachers like Geri Leon and Ann Powers. Finally I leave my love and eternal thanks for some of the most wonderful moments of my life, for all the great people I've met and a fantastic ed.

I, John Baker, leave to the following people: Richard, a pair of ripped jeans and sneakers; Barbara, a new tire jack and a dirty joke book; Cherese, a locking gas cap; Dr. H., a 10 gallon coffee cup; Chris, an unlimited bat collection; Richard K., a pair of shoes; Mrs. Stone, a quiet chair; Rich A., a tram to Stony Brook.

I, Carolyn (C.J.) Barnett, leave a stack of worn out typewriter ribbons, four years' supply of left-overs, and reams of enriching experiences to all non-traditional classmates, as well as a bushel of thanks to all the faculty.

I, Ella M. Barry, leave Sr. Virginia my life.

I, Abi Bengel, leave my thanks to Sr. Mary Robert White, a fine and dedicated teacher who did much to inspire me, and my respect for all of the thesis advisors who are still coherent in December. I also leave, in celebration, a six pack of beer in the parking lot to anyone who can find it.

I, Peter Burke, leave a debate to Sr. Margaret Jennings; to Lips, I leave a new Maytag; to Sr. Joan, an excuse; to Benilde, a drop slip and a large pepperoni pizza - available any time in the student lounge; to Debbie Curran.

I leave a Ward Cleaver doll; to Chrissy, an axe; to Diane, a pack of cigarettes.

I, Robert Byers, was never a religious person when I started at St. Joseph's. However, when I found out I was graduating and getting out of St. Joseph's, I started attending church regularly to thank "Him" for that accomplishment. I leave my undergraduates this educational institution, GOOD LUCK.

I, Carol Lee, leave all my love and spirit to all SJC students and faculty. To Rose - "my bestest pal" - . . . strength, understanding, and love, the same gifts you so often share with me. To KellyAnn, Kathy, Liz, Patti, Jeannie C., Jeanne B., and Jerry C. . . . memories of special friendship and dreams come true. To J.R., Mike, Johnny Mott, Pete, and Patrick, Happy Trails to you . . . always! To my family - thanks for being so patient and loving the past four years. Now that I am graduating, maybe we'll get to see each other more often.

I, Chris Chapel, leave to the underclassmen of SJC the help and understanding of the faculty members without whose individual interest I would not have come this far (with special thanks to Bill Bengston, John Hazzard, Sr. Loretta McGrann, and Barbara Morrell). I also wish to all the strength and hope to endure to graduation with the same pride and courage that pulled me through some challenging semesters. I take with me the love and appreciation of my family and friends, especially my father and my love, Walt, whose praise and encouragement made my efforts meaningful.

I, Kristine Chrapa, leave to Vince Messina one copy of my thesis, a million thanx and much love. I leave to my entire family all my love and thanx for their undying support, help, and understanding—I love you all!!

I, Katie Coleman, will my personal belongings to my sisters, who put up with me; my degree and certification to my parents, who supported me; my heart to the one I love, who gave me strength when I needed it, and my sympathy to the kids I will someday teach! Joanne Kelly D'Esposito - To the faculty and students of St. Joseph's, many thanks for your guidance, friendship, and memories. To my husband Frank, my thanks for his support and eternal love. To Sister Bonnie Kelly, my gratitude, friendship, and love.

I, Vinny D'Iorio, leave to J.S. a great big THANK YOU for all your help.

I, Karen Gieg, leave all my worldly goods to my parents and sisters who have supported me sturdily throughout my life, with the following exceptions: To Lois Ingebretsen: my entire personal library for her friendship and fellow "panic"; To Andrea Santorelli: my artwork—may she throw it out wherever she pleases—perhaps bury it in Greece with my thesis; To Cynthia Parrett: my voice (though heaven only knows why she wants it); To Sister Bonnie: my knowledge—may it always be passed on to others; To my teachers, especially Maureen Shea & Gretchen Wollmers: my undying gratitude; and to my fellow students: a hearty and heartfelt Good Luck!

I, Carol Anne Giuliano, leave Waverly Avenue to my brother Chip and all students that take the S40 bus.

Debra Graham—I would like to thank God for helping me every step of the way and my family for putting up with me.

I, Deirdre Jersey, bequeath to the teachers of St. Joseph's College my sincerest gratitude for helping to develop my critical thinking, intellect and reason; for expanding my knowledge and creativity. To the Sisters, my thanks for your prayers. To Brother Benilde, a Christian analogy of justice. To Sister Loretta, encouragement on the road to her Doctorate. To Sister Margaret, my library overdue slips and a "Rose." To my mother, three credits for typing my thesis.

I, Lynnmarie Kane, leave Kathy Puttre Tom Sellack; Fran DiGioia, a big smile throughout life; Linda Sierra, happiness and success throughout life; Ellen Chambers, more time in a day; Bob Lombardi, "Bunny"; Kevin Eissler, a pin to deflate his ego; Holly O'Grady, a little sister; and Bruce Lawlor, Carol. I, Margaret Kelly, leave serenity and humor.

I, Joan Kelly, leave all my friends my love and best wishes in all they do.

I, Karl W. Klug, hereby dedicate the memories of my studies at St. Joseph's College to Suzanne, my dear and loving wife. Her continuous support and devotion was the inspiration of my desire to complete my education. To Christopher and Erika, our children, may you find richness and joy in learning, as I have. For all my friends, especially the teachers at St. Joseph's, thank you for your constant encouragement.

Eileen Konigsberg—"Seek the Lord while he may be found." Isaiah 55:6.

I, Joanmarie Koster, being of relatively sound mind, do hereby bequeath the following: To my English majors, I leave the only true major, History. To Rosemary goes the Jotter room, Mr.

Right, and a revolutionary coup. To Alan goes Walt Whitman and tough girls. To Debbie, a computer to destroy humans to relate to and short, red-haired men to insult you. To Holly, birthdays, 33's, West Pointers, and a rosary. To Laurie goes "students." To Monica, England . . . the continuing saga. To Sr. Joan I leave Walt Whitman on Long Island and much for the past four years. To all my friends, I wish them peace and happiness throughout their lives!

I, Kathleen Lawlor, do hereby solemnly extend to my advisor, Sr. Joan Ryan, much appreciation and gratitude, for her unending patience and understanding. I also want to thank my family for their many years of support and guidance. And lastly, my special thanks to my best friend, Albert Hanna

Patricia Lear—I came here to teach special education, but had special problems of my own. I got special attention and care from special people. So, to you St. Joseph's, I give my "special thanks" to a special college.

I, Lucretia M. Lucivero, cannot say any longer that I am of sound mind and body after four years of college, but anyway, I leave my brown Plymouth Duster to anyone my textbooks, especially Science and Accounting which have never been reopened after the last classes.

I, Mary Jane A. Lugovsky, leave my devoted love to my husband Val, my son Steven-Leonid, my son Christopher John, Mama, and Papa for their understanding and patience. I leave to you, Sr. Karen Kenney and Sr. Pat Manning, my undying friendship and love.

I, Beverly Mann, would like to leave the joy of cancelled classes, passing, finding the north exit door opened, and a guidance teacher who knows how to guide.

I, Kathleen Moros, wish Sylvia much happiness. I leave to Jane, a handsome lawyer; to Marion, a dozen beautiful red roses; to the admissions office, a "Thanks" for giving me the pleasure to know them. Ah! to Rick, I leave HIS degree, success, happiness, all of my love, and many more wonderful years together.

I, Ellen McEnerney, leave my ideas on advertising for St. Joseph's to Dean Travis, my textbook on Psychology of Aging to Carolyn Gallogly, the world's problems to Richard McInerney, a carton of cigarettes and a pound of raw cashews to Rich Barry, my camera to Marge Benedik, and to the school in general, ten used typewriter ribbons.

I, Laura Obradovich, leave behind me all the years of toil and yearning to gain the knowledge necessary to receive my baccalaureate degree, only to find that my thirst for knowledge can never be quenched.

I, Holly O'Grady, do hereby bequeath to Katie, a knight in shining armor who is worthy of your company and my sincerest thanks for all the great times and all the work you did on our yearbook; to Joanmarie, memories of West Point, LSAT's, birthdays, pink roses and pink carnations, applications . . . I always knew misery loved company and I thank God that I had yours!; to Lynn, all the ducks your heart desires; to Chris Gus, a triangular bell in memory of a great party and an "older" man; to Jimmy, my love and thanks for the beautiful letters and pictures; to Mark, my thanks for Everything; to Dave H. and John H., "how to apply to law school" instructions and my thanks; to Tara, self control, money, and a functioning "Niglet"; to Frank, my friendship and an evening with Christie Brinkley; and to my family, I can't think of any people I would rather "fall in a hole" with. Thanks guys! I, Tina Louise Petriello, would like to thank my mother and father for all their support and encouragement over the past four years. Without their inspiration, I would never have made it through the difficult times. And to Brian, thank you for giving me so much happiness. You have made everything in my life something special.

I, Michele Pilo, bequeath a large framed copy of my diploma to my husband, Joe, and children, Teresa, Kristine, Michael, and Daniel, to hang in their bedrooms and serve as a reminder that I didn't do it alone. To Joe, Maureen, and the fourth-grade class teacher who let me experiment with her class, I leave a copy of my thesis. I leave my heart to all those professors who raised my sights, expanded my mind, and supported and encouraged the student's endeavors!

I, Doreen Polzella, leave to Maria Taluto my Modern Poetry book and all its fine memories; to Michele Stanions, a beautiful song to sing and your wonderful voice to sing it with; to Nancy Limberg, a mathematical computation that has a check system we understand; to Kathy DeAngelo, a wedding date and engagement ring that she keeps; to Biology, I leave all the fruit-flies imaginable; to History, all the happy times in Europe, and to my darling husband, Tony, I leave all my love and dedication for ever and ever.

I, Toni Proscia, am glad that I had attended St. Joseph's College. I feel that this college has helped me to fulfill my future plans of becoming a special education/elementary school teacher. I was proud to be a part of it during September '81 to December '83.

I, Katherine L. Shivers, attribute my success to a dear an eternal friend, my husband, Patrick E. Shivers.

I, Linda Sierra, am grateful to all those individuals at SJC who have helped me to become the person that I am. To my Professors and the Library staff, I leave you with your endless paper work. To my dear friends Ellen and Cindy: I leave you the cold walls of the Stonybrook College Library. To Rochelle and Lynn, I leave you my "fi-nesse"! To Lucretia and Debbie and so many others, I leave you my ability to talk and talk. To Terri, I leave you jogging in the middle of winter in strange towns. To my mother, I leave you with an adult who still needs your support. And to my sweetheart, "Gen" (Glenn), I leave you me.

I, Maria Taliercio, leave the following: To Benilde, deepest love, respect, and real cheesecake. To Paul H., a desert full of spice. To Stan N., a baton in Carnegie Hall. To Bill B., a suitable counter-hypothesis. To Irwin L., Memoirs of a Pre-Heroic Non-Schizophrenic Violin-Player. To Sr. Grace Edna: My first Tony. To Bobbie and Joe, Dottie, Marge, Vera, Linda, Marie: my thanks for making the bearable wonderful. Finally, to Sr. Rose Catherine, oranges, figs, and at the very least, initials on my diploma.

I, Catherine Tursi, hereby leave a portion of my B.A. to my mother for all the typing she has done. I leave my appreciation to all the teachers who have made my education rewarding and any assistance I can give to Barbara and Janice while they're at St. Joseph's. I leave lasting friendships and memories with my friends at St. Joseph's, especially Laura and Kris. Most of all I leave a special love and thanks to my family for all the moral support (and babysitting hours) they've given me! I couldn't have done it alone! I, Barbara White, hereby leave the following items: To Michael, I leave all my love and happiness for our future; To Cheresse, I leave the old Jotter Room's key; To Richard I leave a Vortex-Genie for his own enjoyment; To John I leave the world's driest joke book, slightly off color; To Kathy, I leave a short slip that isn't red; To Chris I leave a muzzle; To Jenny I leave metal balls; To Rich K. I leave a tackling dummy; to Sharon, I leave lessons on how not to be gullible; To all the other people to whom I have had the pleasure of knowing, luck and happiness in the future. To Doc, I leave a wall that answers back; to Mrs. Stone, I leave a killer fruit fly; to Mr. A., I leave a book of practical jokes; to Frank, a book of 1001 Dreams interpreted.

I, David John Wood, leave my parking space under the tree to whoever is quick enough to grab it when I leave. Also, I leave my churning stomach to all the younger child study majors.

Barbara Morrell, Faculty Moderator

Thank God it's ALL over!

This year, our staff has tried some truly creative innovations to fashion the perfect yearbook. It is our wish that this book be a special momento for ALL the Seniors. When they dust it off twenty years from now, we hope they will experience the same excitement they felt when the first opened it. We realize that cherished memories are difficult to capture, and we have strived to do your college experience justice.

It is important to remember that this yearbook is a collective effort. We would not have a successful book without the help of the administration, faculty and student body.

On a more personal level: I would like to thank the members of my staff for their unselfish devotion throughout the year. It is impossible to list all the people involved with this year's book so I would like to extend a general thanks to all my assistants. A special thanks goes to those people who were there when the deadlines came up; Karen Collins, Joanmarie Koster, Sue Peters, and ESPECIALLY Holly O'Grady. Last, but not least: thanks to Barbara Morrell for inspiring the face lift of Horizons '84.

*Thank you,
Kathy Puttre, Yearbook Editor*

MOST MEMORABLE MOMENTS

Carolyn Acciarito: My first day of student teaching; registering for my last semester.

Pat Baessler: Seeing Sr. Bonnie flipping those hamburgers at the Renaissance Faire. We called her Sr. Whimpey that day...seeing all those beautiful "Hands in Harmony" shows...seeing Sr. Karen's commercial on television...seeing my name on the "exempt from finals" list...seeing Mary Jane again and realizing she sang at my wedding long ago.

John Baker: Richard on fire!

Carolyn Barnett: Honors Convocation and Finals Week!

Ella M. Barry: I leave Sr. Virginia my life.

Abi Bengel: My most memorable moments at St. Joe's were all the moments in which I was greeted by name by people in the library, Business and Financial Aid offices with whom I had met only once or twice before.

Peter Burke: Oh if them lips would talk! The Reggae dance; Godspell—Jerry Callaghan running out of the auditorium and getting sick when I made a mistake with the spotlight during a rehearsal; leaving the audience in the dark at the end of Gypsy; the ski trip of February '82—the gang from Middle Village.

Robert Byers: When I got a ticket in the school parking lot that had no room for cars.... The Tender Loving Care I got from the Music, Psychology and Art Departments, they were great. Some T.L.C. should rub off on the Recreation Department and the Administration.... Going to class after a forty-five minute drive and a note on the door "NO CLASS TODAY"... am I sorry leaving St. Joe's??? NO WAY!!!

Carol Lee Chadwick: Working as manager of the Rathskeller. Working as treasurer of Student Government. Going to OBI on Monday nights with "just the girls." Partying in Rockwells and trying to play darts. Receiving my college ring and my Student Government gold tassel. Working as Dinner Dance Chairman and going to band showcases.

Christine Chapel: I will always remember my multi-media composition on Motherhood for Sr. Loretta's English-comp class in my freshman year.

This included my 2 year old daughter, Jillian, who helped me to earn the only unanimous "A" for the project. Another unforgettable time for me was the preparation and reporting of a most unusual thesis that sparked the interest of many, including the members of the Sociology Department. These are but a few of the many experiences to be remembered from time spent at St. Joe's.

Katie Coleman: Receiving a partial scholarship, being exempt from 2 finals when I would have had 7, being chosen for Sigma Iota Chi, living through my first semester here, passing my credit check in Senior year, filing for my B.A. Degree and writing my name "as I'd like it to appear on my degree."

Joanne Kelly D'Esposito: To the faculty and students of St. Joseph's many thanks for their guidance, friendship and memories. To my husband Frank my thanks for his support and eternal love. To Sister Bonnie my gratitude, friendship and love.

Karen Gieg: For my first observation in student teaching, I demonstrated chemical reaction. My supervisor had a violent "reaction" to my reaction and insisted I had planned to kill her because I didn't want to be observed.

Carol Giuliano: When I received the Scholarship Award for the Good Fellows Club of Suffolk County.

Dierdre Jersey: Reading the Scarlet Letter and going in search of Hawthorne's imagination. First theatrical role and rehearsals of Vanities with Kathy Moros, Mary Sue Whitehead, and our script prompter, Tom Palmieri. Induction in Sigma Iota Chi. Parties and intellectual arguments with the English majors of '83. Yelling @ #$$$C&E in the darkroom when I botched up another piece of photo paper.*

Lynn Kane: Friday night parties, the friendly atmosphere, and the ski trip
Margaret Kelly: Philosophy 123 taught by Father John Hession.

Karl W. Klug: My first day of my first class, the last day of my last class, and every class in between!

Joanmarie Koster: "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Amen." - the Serenity Prayer

Kathleen C. Lawlor: My most memorable moment at St. Joe's was the afternoon last spring at the ring ceremony; a special moment when I realized the significance of my college education.

Kathleen Moros: I will never forget the night Rick and I stayed up all night to compose a song for a music project. The chorus went, "It's the call of the lazy, crazy day that rests upon a dream."

Ellen McEnerney: Watching the track team run backwards outside my classroom window, field experience at the Adult Day Care Center, my field trip to Yugoslavia, the warmth and the friendliness I found in St. Joseph's.

Laura Obradovich: My most memorable moment was during the first semester when my mind and body finally got acclimated to the learning pace and requirements of St. Joseph's College. It was at that point in time that I achieved a feeling of self-fulfillment and pride that words can not describe.

Holly O'Grady: The "Camel" girls camping trip, the West Point Conference on Foreign Affairs, the Middle Village Ski Trip, Physics class and Kathy's sweater, sand flies at Smith's Point, and unbearable Student Government meetings.

Michele Pilo: Handing in my thesis; receiving my scholarship, finishing my first semester here; election to the honor society.

Doreen Polzella: The day that I married the love of my life, Tony Polzella (5-29-82). Working with many wonderful children during fieldwork and student teaching experiences. Meeting with fine teachers who have been a great influence for me.

Toni Proscia: Drug 100 with D.P. and C.C. Olive Oil's class. Taking home Tippy. The Channel, Smedley's and Atlantic Street Crew's.

Catherine Tursi: Going to St. Joseph's the first day after being out of school for 6 years. Making up my very last schedule. Coming out of Credit Check without any problems.

Barbara White: My most memorable moment was learning the proper way to shake a test tube.

David John Wood: All of Them!!!!
